

Free vintage upright piano

Maxwell, Iowa 50161
United States

This piano has a matching bench. One key is missing part of the ivory. The music rack slides well. It is suitable for learning to play the piano.

It is in the basement of our church in Maxwell, Iowa. There are no stairs to get it to ground level, but there is a ramp. You can park just a few feet from the door.

We'd like for someone to get it who'd like to learn to play. We're ok with your painting it or reworking it into a desk or whatever you're thinking of doing with it.
