

1980s Kimball Upright Piano

HENRYVILLE, Pennsylvania 18332
United States

The original owner was my grandmother, who bought it new back in the 1980s. I inherited it, and have had it since. Kept in a temperature and humidity controlled environment. Owned by a musician and luthier. I won't be able to take it with me when I move, so I'd like it to go to a good home. It plays well. But needs a good tuning. I have tuned it myself over the years. Comes with matching bench. One of the metal knobs for the key cover fell off during moving.
