Rare Thielen cabinet grand from St Louis, circa 1913-1927. Era apparent from streamlined, simple design/columns. Body and interior generally in good condition, except for chip on left corner. Needs tuning and key toppers. With original bench! Piano has been in the family for generations. As you can see many keys are missing their ivory toppers. It has been well-loved, and still plays. None of us play anymore, so we want to find it a new home where it will be used.
