Richmond upright piano - as is for use or parts. The Richmond Piano Company produced pianos from 1870-1950 so this piano is an "antique". I still use it but it could definitely use much TLC and a tuning. It is located in my ground level basement so will not need to be taken down any steps. I hope another family or organization can use it for their pleasure as we have. You may have it if you can pick it up!
